Special Dispatch to the Virginian.

LYNCHBURG, VA., August 15.—To day was an off day for Pitcher Williams, and the Lynchburgs batted him right and left. The result was a one-sided game from beginning to end, the final score being 11 to 3.

Mason, the new pitcher secured by the Lynchburgs, made his appearance in the box for the first time, and inside of three innings he was a prime favorite with the large crowd present. A man that on first appearance can puzzle such sluggers as McLean, O'Hagan, Corcoran, Tate, Thornton, and the like, is strictly in the game.

If the Norfolk can't hit who can? The worst punishment that Mason got at any one time was when in the eighth inning, Tate hit a three-bagger, and had Thornton, who had struck out several times sent a long one over the fence for a home run, scoring two. The ground on both sides was excellent. Corcoran, of the visitors, played a great game at short, accepting fourteen chances without an error.

In the first inning Lynchburg got a commanding lead and it was never overcome. Berryhill singled and was forced out at second by McIntyre. Thompson's two bagger and Plock's home drive netted three runs. Ferguson got a base on balls, Smith a two-bagger, Leahy singled and Thornton let it pass him. Ferguson and Smith scoring, Leahy going to third and scoring on Ralbert's hit.

Norfolk was unable to make a start until the third, when Shorty McGinn hit to the fence for two bases. Corcoran made a hit to right, which Ferguson allowed to pass him. McGinn scoring and Corcoran going to third. Tate went out on a fly, retiring the side.

In the fifth for Lynchburg Ferguson hit to third and was safe on wild throw of O'Hagan to Tate. Smith sacrificed and Ferguson scored on Leahy's hit. Leahy scored on hits by Ralbert and Mason.

In the seventh the home team rounded out the eleventh run.

Snap Shots of the Diamond.

Portsmouth was the first club to play 100 games.

"Pop" Tate is a terror to pitchers. He has made nine hits in the last four games.

It was Brandt against Flynn yesterday, and "Big Willie" got decidedly the best of the "Wizard."

Joanes may have been conscientious in his work yesterday, but there is scarcely any one who saw his work, that believes it.

"Horse Shoe" McCann is still in the business. For further information address Capt. Tommy Turner, of the "Farmers."

Orth did his first work for Philadelphia yesterday. He was put in after Carney and Taylor had won the game. New York found him a puzzle.

Petersburg put in a new twirler yesterday by the name of Pearson. As the game was lost when he was put in, nothing can be said of his ability as a pitcher.

Two games will be played in Portsmouth this afternoon. The first will be called at 2:30 o'clock sharp, and the only man who has been a success as an umpire in the Virginia league will officiate, and that man is Mr. Chas. Mitchell.

Alph Joanes is a good ball player, but as an umpire he is a dead rank failure. These remarks are based on the exhibition he gave yesterday, and it will be a long time before he will be allowed to umpire a game in Portsmouth again, if ever.

Baltimore and Boston fought for fifteen innings yesterday. It was 10 to 10 at the ending of the ninth. Boston was blanked for the next five innings, while Baltimore succeeded in making the winning run in her half of the fifteenth.

The "Blue Birds" have played four games this week, three in Norfolk and one in Portsmouth. They made 25 hits, an average of 6 hits a game. They were distributed as follows: Berie, 6; Bradley, 5; Houseman, 4; Kain, 3; Smith, 3; Foster, 1; Flynn, 1; Groves, 1; and Wells, 1. It is astonishing how this club got such a fat batting average.

The umpire question is a serious one. Why not elect a man who is fully competent to act as president and secretary of the league, and upon him place the responsibility of furnishing the proper men to fill the important positions of umpire? As the matter now stands, no one can be held directly responsible, as there are several who have their fingers in the pie. Select a man, and pay him well for his services. The Virginian believes that Judge Witt, who is one of the most honorable gentlemen in Virginia, would be only too glad to vacate the presidency to make room for a man who thoroughly understands the game, and who could and would give his whole time and attention to the business of the league.

Then this question of favoritism, partiality, and one man, and one club, power and authority would be obliterated to such an extent that everybody would know upon whom to directly attach the responsibility, should anything wrong occur.

The Fund for Mrs. Hale.

THE VIRGINIAN is still in receipt of donations for Mrs. Hale at Virginia Beach. It acknowledges $2 from two ladies and $1 from a "sympathizer."

Those of its readers who wish to contribute to a really great charity can do so by leaving donations at the VIRGINIAN office. Mrs. Hale has several little children to provide for, food, clothing and attend to, and in her present condition she is depending upon the kind assistance of those disposed to contribute. She and her little babe are getting on as well as possible under the circumstances.

MRS. GUY AGAIN ASSAULTED

A Negro Enters Her Yard and Knocks Her Down.

Three Attacks Have Been Made on Her in the Past Ten Days. A Negro Suspected. A Searching Party Fails to Capture the Cowardly Brute.

Three assaults on a married woman in her own home by a negro within ten days is an awful record for this city, yet the Police Department seems to be taking very little interest in the matter, although the lady assaulted is the wife of a policeman.

About ten days ago, when Mrs. Mary Guy, wife of Officer James Guy, was sitting in the hallway of her house on Duke street extended, holding her 3-year-old boy, a negro entered and without warning picked up the child in which she was seated and carried her into the yard. Mrs. Guy's screams brought several neighbors and the negro made his escape.

Four days later a negro, presumably the same one, passed the house, and after making faces at her shook his fist in Mrs. Guy's face.

His work last night, however, capped the climax for lawlessness. Mrs. Guy, about 8:30 o'clock, was seated in a rocking chair at her back door when a negro entered the yard and going up to her struck a powerful blow with his fist in the lady's breast, knocking her down in her own hallway. Her screams awoke her brother, who was asleep in the hall and in a few minutes several of the neighbors were searching for the man, but without success. Justice Gregory, who was at his home at the time, visited the house where the assault occurred, and also joined in the search. When seen at the police station last night the Justice said that a negro was under suspicion. Mrs. Guy is positive she can identify her assailant, although she was suffering from nervous prostration last night, and Dr. Dupuy had been called in.

PERSONALS AND BRIEFS.

In the Corporation Court to day George Johnson, colored, indicted for burglary, was tried and acquitted, the jury reaching a decision without leaving their seats.

George White and Jim Barber (the Norfolk Social Club) charged with unlawful gaming and selling liquor on the Sabbath, were heard before Justice Burroughs yesterday morning, who took the case under advisement. Barber and White being bailed to appear when needed.

The funeral of Emanuel, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Friedlander, took place from the parents' residence, No. 251 Freemason street, yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock. Little Emanuel was a lovely child and his demise has caused an aching void in a heretofore happy household.

Every One Knows

To-day the danger of feeding babies on ordinary cow's milk, however fresh. It is full of properties injurious to the delicate organization of an infant. And it is especially so in the summer. In cities, where the milk is always of greater or less age, it will soon forfeit its best nourishment to microbes unless sterilized.

The absolute purity of the milk is essential and positively necessary for your infant's welfare. To obtain pure milk, sterilizing is required; your physician will tell you so.

The Arnold sterilizer is the simplest and best. Any one can operate it, and its price is in the reach of all. Sold in Norfolk by John W. Burrow, the druggist, Main street.

Evening Excursion to Old Point.

The steamer Northampton, of Old Dominion Line, will leave Bay Line wharf, Norfolk, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening at 7 p. m. for Old Point; returning, leave Old Point at 10 p. m. Round trip fare for this delightful excursion, 50 cents.

Good Coffee (simply delicious) at Mac's. Try it, and you will drink nothing else this warm weather.

TUG PARTY.

Delightful and Enjoyable Trip Down the River.

Mr. F. A. Myers, of York, Pa., who was married on Tuesday to Miss Nichols, of this city, is much pleased with Norfolk, and contemplates making this city his home. The firm of F. A. Myers & Co., are large manufacturers of cigars, and Mr. Myers will likely open a branch house here. He has been shown much attention by his friends during his frequent visits to Norfolk. Yesterday, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Myers, Capt. Barney Lindsay gave a tug party to Newport News on his steamer Elk, which was very greatly enjoyed.

The following were Capt. Lindsay's guests: Mr. and Mrs. Myers, Miss Hatfield Nichols, Miss Mamie Hendley, Mr. Jno Hendley, Mr. J. E. Fulford, R. D. Nichols and Mr. Sam Swartz and J. Clinesfelder, of York, Pa.

They visited places of interest down the river and returned to Norfolk at 10 o'clock last night.

Board of Police Commissioners.

The Board met in regular weekly session at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Present, Commissioners Bolton and Verdir.

Mr. Verdir was called to the chair. Commissioner Bolton stated that several citizens had complained to him that the officer on the beat on old Market square between 7 and 10 o'clock, last night, behaved in a very ludicrous and unbecoming manner. So much so that he disturbed the religious worship being conducted on the square at the time.

Acting Chief King was instructed to summon the officer before the next meeting of the Board and the parties that had lodged the complaint against him, that the matter may be thoroughly investigated and the officer disciplined.

Substitute A. D. Woodhouse was promoted to a regular on the force.

Mr. Wm. Haines was appointed a substitute on the force, providing he passes the usual medical examination.

After signing the minutes of the meetings for the past twelve months the Board adjourned.

The Academy's Opening.

The theatrical season of 1895-96 was ushered in at the Academy of Music last night by John Kernell and his company, who appeared in "McFadden's Elopement," a nonsensical farce comedy in three acts, before a fair-sized audience, considering the extreme heat. The company is a good one, many of the songs and dances receiving merited applause, especially those of John Kernell and the Urich sisters. Of the play little can be said, although with proper rehearsal it may be a go.

During the summer the Academy has been in the hands of the painters and decorators and presented a handsome appearance last night. The auditorium has been handsomely papered, while the lobbies have been prettily frescoed.

Norfolk College.

The Norfolk College for Young Ladies, as will be seen by their new catalogue just out, have completed the selection of a splendid corps of teachers (19 in number) from among the very best schools of the country. The principal in charge, a highly educated gentleman, with large experience as an educator of young women. The principals of the several departments come with the highest endorsements of the best educators in the South, and all the teachers are thoroughly equipped for their duties. The catalogues should be examined by those having daughters to send to school.

The Hon. Hoke Smith, Secretary of the Interior, and family arrived at Ocean View Wednesday morning, where he will make a brief stay, enjoying the sea breeze and the other attractions which the delightful resort affords.

Secretary Smith came direct from Georgia, where he has been addressing the people of that State on the renoy question, and expresses himself as being well pleased with the View. He is delightfully quartered in a suite of rooms on the first floor looking out to the sea, and has received marked attention since his arrival.

"JIM" CORBETT IS MARRIED.

"Vera," of the Divorce Suit, is Now His Wife.

By Southern Associated Press.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., August 15.—The Corbett cottage, corner Seventh and Emery streets, was the scene of a quiet wedding this morning. Champion James J. Corbett was married to Miss Jessie Taylor, of Omaha, Neb. The bride is known by the name of Vera Stanwood, and she is the "Vera" of the divorce suit.

Corbett returned from Buffalo this morning and made up his mind to get married. He invited only three of his Asbury Park friends and kept the proposed marriage so quiet that even William A. Brady, his manager, knew nothing of it. Justice John A. Borden, of Asbury Park, performed the ceremony.

The witnesses were J. E. Wortman, J. P. Buckalew, W. E. Redell, Jacob Howland, Joe Corbett and Alice, the cook. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett left on the 10:10
